

René Magdalenić

Management Development & Training, Brussels,
Belgium

René Magdalenić is Director of Management Development & Training, a Brussels based organization engaged mainly in in-company training and development over a wide range of financial management subjects for non-financial managers. He is author of several programmed texts in French and Dutch on financial analysis, cost accounting and budgeting and has written a number of cases on similar subjects. He is currently engaged on further research into computer assisted learning. In addition to his present in-company work in Belgium, the Netherlands and France, René Magdalenić has lectured at INSEAD in Fontainebleau, De Baak (Institute of Dutch Industries) and currently lectures at the B.O.B. (Educational Institute of Dutch Building Industries) and International Executive Development Center (Slovenia). He has trained, since 1970, more than 8000 managers for a number of major companies throughout Benelux, France, Slovenia and Croatia.